

At the end of the song, ELFIS tries to pick up one of the TOYS.

Elfis Come along, now. We have to put you on Santa's sleigh.

Toy Not yet, I haven't been wrapped up!

Dodge Let go, Elfis. He's quite right. We wrap them, then we pack them.
Do concentrate.

Santa (to TOYS) Goodbye to all of you. Enjoy your new homes. I know you'll bring happiness and joy to many girls and boys on Christmas Day.

Toys Goodbye, Santa!

TOYS exit.

Glitter Now it's time to bring in the reindeer for inspection.

Speedy We've groomed their coats until they shine, so that the wind will whistle past them!

Sprinkle We've polished their hooves until we could see our faces in them.
They will land without making a sound!

Whizzo We've fed them magic oats so they will have the strength to fly from midnight until sunrise.

Elfis Shall I go and fetch them from the stable, Santa?

Quickfoot You, Elfis? You'd probably get lost on the way from the workshop to the barn. Let Silver fetch them. He keeps his eyes open!

SILVER goes out of the door and quickly returns, followed by the REINDEER.

Silver Here they are, Santa, but I think they have something to say to you.
