

WHAT'S IN A WORD? HARVEST

Alison Carver

Seven children each hold an A4 card with a capital letter written on it: H-A-R-V-E-S-T.

Narrator Welcome to our Harvest celebration. We have come together to give thanks that all the crops have been safely gathered in from the fields. We have brought fresh food, tins and packets which will be given to other people who don't have as much food as we do. This is our special way of saying thank you to God.

We are lucky because we have plenty to eat each day. Some of our food comes from other countries, like strawberries from Italy, coffee from Kenya and oranges from South Africa.

We often take food for granted and so Harvest is a good time to stop and remember how fortunate we are.

1. H IS FOR HARVEST
